

SAFE FOOD COALITION

1620 Eye Street, NW, Suite 200, Washington, DC 20006 202-797-8551

The Safe Food Coalition consists of consumer groups, public health groups, groups representing victims of foodborne illness, and labor organizations dedicated to reducing the burden of foodborne illness in the United States by improving government food inspection programs. The Coalition was created in 1986 to monitor government food safety activities and coordinate efforts to improve food safety.

Current members include:

- American Public Health Association
- Center for Foodborne Illness, Research and Prevention
- Center for Science in the Public Interest
- Consumer Federation of America
- Consumers Union
- Food & Water Watch
- Government Accountability Project
- National Consumers League
- The Pew Charitable Trusts
- STOP Foodborne Illness
- United Food and Commercial Workers Union
- U.S. Public Interest Research Group

The Safe Food Coalition is coordinated by Chris Waldrop, Director of the Food Policy Institute at Consumer Federation of America. Chris can be reached at 202-797-8551 or cwaldrop@consumerfed.org.
