

Consumer Federation of America

J. ROBERT HUNTER
Director of Insurance (pro-bono)

EXPERIENCE

- Commissioner of Insurance, State of Texas
- Member of National Association of Insurance Commissioners, serving on the NAIC Executive Committee and as the Vice-Chair, Western Zone of NAIC
- President and Founder, National Insurance Consumer Organization (pro-bono)
- Federal Insurance Administration (HUD), serving as:
 - Federal Insurance Administrator
 - Deputy Federal Insurance Administrator
 - Chief Actuary(Ran the National Flood Insurance Program and other programs)
- Private Insurance Industry experience, including:
 - Associate Actuary, Mutual Insurance Advisory Association and Mutual Insurance Rating Bureau (now AIPSO)
 - Actuarial Supervisor, National Bureau of Casualty Underwriters (now ISO)
 - Underwriter, Atlantic Mutual and Centennial Insurance Companies
- Fellow, Casualty Actuarial Society; Member, American Academy of Actuaries

AWARDS

- HUD Secretary's Award for Excellent Service, for work performed from 1971 to 1977
- Esther Peterson Consumer Service Award for lifetime service, CFA, 2002
- Schraeder-Nelson Publications Award; article of the year for Enron's Impact on State Insurance Regulation, Regulator Magazine, Insurance Regulatory Examiner's Society 2002; Same award in 2007 for How Regulators can Return P/C Profits to Reasonable Levels. Only person to win this award twice.